Auction Description / Review

Back in the old Atari 2600 days, there was a game called Pepsi Invaders created by Coca-Cola given away to employees. You played a hacked version of Space Invaders, and you shot at Pepsi logos. Well, Pepsi wasn't real happy, and they did nothing. Not a damn thing, so I stepped in and had some fun.

You are bidding on a non-working version of the game Crystal Pepsi. You take the Japanese mascot Pepsi-man through the evil lands of Cokeheadville, a land ripe with evil cola sequels, lemon infected drinks, and this nasty habit of stealing B-List actors for their commercials. Eventually you will never take on the corporate heads of Coke II and vanquish the evil known as corporate competition.

Enclosures

The game with a crystal clear pendant pictured below.

Also included in this auction is the extremely rare map of Crystal Pesi-Land, which was only given away to hardcore Pespi supporters at the 1998

• Trivia

- The Disc regrettfully has way too many scratches on it to be repaired, and there has been a severe build-up of plastic in the hub, so it will not load into a PlayStation 2. It is for bragging rights only. The CD is pictured below:

- There was a very small print run of the game, in fact, it was so small not even Pepsi, Coke, or even Sony know this was made.
- Crystal Pepsi was one of the worst performing colas in the history of mankind. This game is the worst performing game in the history of gaming; it doesn't work.
- Ray Charles has a hidden cameo in the game. He teaches you how to play the piano and make booku bucks off of commercial endorsements.

We-Hate-Coke-But-We-Hate-RC-Even-More-Rally held in downtown Glucoseisha. The map is in MINT condition, with only the original folds present. It is pictured below:

Greatest Hits

Crystal Pepsi was never released in a Greatest Hits packaging. Rumor Has it there may be a 20 oz. version.

Variations / Misprints

This is the only known copy in existence, and a variant is highly doubtful.
