Well folks, the bills have piled up and I can not dodge them any longer. I am sadly announcing the auction of my entire collection, one game at a time. I figured I would start with the rarest of all PlayStation titles; rarer than Dragon Ball & Suikoden combined: PlayStation: Variant Hunters - Revolution #9: The PSRM Files of Lore.

A Little back story for those not in the know:

Back in 2004, I had the chance to attend a video game swap meet in Chicago at a family owned game store. It was owner Joe, and what he had in his hands took me by surprise. I thought I had found every last PlayStation game the with a copy of the game in his grubby little hands. I had a friend snap a photo of him holding it in case I couldn't sna

Well, after a few beers, a few stories, and my personal savings account emptied via a hacked Xbox live set-up, I was prizes, and even better, Joe had the damn guide book to go with it! I can not tell you how insanely freaking rare these guarantee you these are the only ones of their kind on ebay, and will most likely be the last time you ever see them. You expert to see how EXTREME this item's rarity is.

The game follows the Adventures of Steve Vicsucks and Jason FucEidos as they scour the planet for every last known sub-title, Revolution #9, pays homage to the final disc artwork for the game Alundra. It is the final piece needed in the Design printing fiasco. Aside from a small mention in the last Game-Rave Rarity list update, this game has not been listed

Game case, manual, and CD are in mint condition. The strategy guide has been used a few times (too many Eidos variants level), and though slightly worn in the spine, looks great.

All items are sold as is since they don't really exist, and you should not bid on this item unless you do it in the Digitip e-mail with any questions. Thanks, good luck!
