GOT ALZHEIMERS?!

NOT ANYMORE!

Worried that when you old and decrepit that you start to forget you most cherished memories?

Film only last so long. Save you images forever!

Modern medical science have allowed us the opportunity to perform a procedure on your brain allowing you to insert any standard Playstation 2 memory card. See picture below.

This auction is not intended for anyone to bid on unless you are a member of Digitpress.com. It's a joke so don't take it seriously. I cannot operate on your brain, nor will I. Besides, you wouldn't want a PS2 memory card.. you'd want a CompactFlash or something bigger. I meant to type wrong above so it would sound like 99% of the other eBay idiots who can't spell or write English.
